

a Marginal correlation, one amino acid at a time no model, no held-out data; $n = 4,432$ shared deletions b Cross-validated ridge (section 5.3), out of fold five folds, three shuffles; error bar = SD across shuffles c Tyrosine is non-monotone in betaxanthin decile which is why its linear correlation reads near zero

